Grand Scribe's Report.

To the Officers and Representatives of the Grand Division Sons of Temperance of South Carolina: DEAR BRETHIRE—I shall not weary your patience with a long introduction, but simply say it affords me great pleasure to greet you all here in my own Division-room, and let us all indulge the hope that this meeting may be productive of much good to our noble cause. I can only give the statistics of the Order up to March 31, 1378, as the June returns have not been received in time to make up my report.

FINANCIAL CONDITION.

It affords me pleasure to state that we are gradually working out of debt, and I hope by our next annual meeting that I can report the old debt entirely cancelled. This will depend, though, upon the Deputies, and they will at once see the importance of sending in their returns promptly with the per capita tax. I would especially call the attention of subordinate Divisions to the resolution passed by the National Division bearing upon the subject of the per capita tax, which I will bring to your notice hereafter.

NATIONAL DIVISION. The thirty-fourth annual session of the National Division held its meeting at Buffalo, New York, commencing June 18, 1878. I would call your attention to the following resolutions passed at that meeting.

Resolved, That Grand Divisions at present indebted to the National Division be allowed until first Jan., 1880, to settle such indebtedness.

Resolved, That the Most Worthy Scribe furnish no supplies, except where the cash accompanies the order.

There were two amendments to to the Constitution of the National Division,

STATE OF THE ORDER.

Since our meeting in Charleston one new Division has been organized in Anderson County, known as "Excelsior, No. 114," and several old Divisions have been reorganized with flattering prosbeen reorganized with flattering pros-pects for the future. This work has all have accomplished by old workers who have accomplished by old workers who have termination to raise up our own tandard of Temperance in our land. I have facts and evidences to justify one in stating that our prospects are brightening, and that we have passed the darkest hour of depression. There is one thing that I would again mention to this Grand Body, which I alluded to in Charleston. Several of our Divisions have adopted the plan of public meetings and pic nics, with addresses from speakers on the subject of temperance, which has resulted in good to the order on every occasion.

In conclusion, dear brethren, let me beg that you all put forth stronger efforts in the cause than you have ever done before, and let us all strive to make this meeting a pleasant and harmonious one, and may it date a new era in our existence, is the earnest prayer of

Your committee regret to note the fact that subordinate Divisions and Divisi nate Divisions are not prompt in sending in their quarterly returns to the Grand Scribe. The importance of promptly rendering these returns and the payment of the per capita tax cannot be too prominently brought before subordinate Divisions, nor too strongly urged upon their consideration. consideration. The prompt performance of this duty will give new life and vigor to the cause in South Carolina, and continue our pleasant and fraternal relations with the National Division. Your committee notice, with pleasure, that the financial condition of this Grand Division, under the very prudent, wise and sagacious management of the Grand Scribe, has been materially improved, and if supported, as he asks and has a order in sections where it has never existed as well as reviving divisions which have lapsed into non-existence. We now have divisions in only a few counties of the State, and cannot hope to place our order in a pressure position by simply cultivating the loss we now occupy. We should, in my counter, endayor to devise some well directed and wisternation of the loss of the los right to expect from his brethren, your committee confidently express the belief that by the annual meeting we shall be free from all embarrassment, and in a ondition to move steadily and surely sward in the grand cause of tem-persons. We should put forth some more active efforts, and I hope you may be able to agree upon some favorable plan.

There is great lack of efficiency on the part of the Deputies of the G-and Worthy Patriarch in this jurisdiction. Only one, (Brother R. G. GEN. TWIGG'S SWORD .- A Washington dispatch states that a lady living in England has made application for three valuable swords formerly the property of Gen. David E. Twiggs, of this State, but which were stolen by Beast Butler when the latter captured New Orleans. These which were stolen by Beast Butler when the latter captured New Orleans. These swords were sent by Butler to President Lincoln and deposited by his successor, President Johnson, in the vaults of the Treasury Department for asfekeeping. They are valued at $35,000, One of them was presented to Gen. Twiggs by Congress for bravery during the Alexican war. The scabbard is of pure gold, and the sword hilt is of solid gold, brilliantly set with diamonds. It is said that when Gen. Twiggs left New Orleans, at the approach of the Union troops, he left these swords behind, but sent a letter to a young lady friend, saying that he had decided to give them to her; and asking her to obtain them.—Soon afterward Gen. Twiggs died, and the lady, who now lives in England, claims the swords as her property, and has made formal application to the Secretary of the Treasury for them. The request is under consideration. FUN ON THE FARM.—We have often heard the remark "How dull farming nust be," or "who would live in the country, where there are no opportuni-ties for fun?" Well, if you want to know what genuine fun is, just pitch in and help break a pair of three year old steers. First you catch a steer and tie him by the head to a post in the yard. Then you catch the other one and tie him around the horns. Then your dad gets the yoke, and between you two and the hired man hold the critter. Just as the hired man hold the critter. Just as you slip the knot, away go the steers with a bawl and a bellow—or rather a pair of bellows—and then arise before your vision a confused mixture of horns, heels, ropes, dad, hired man and curses of stupidity that reminds you of the picture of volcanic eruption in the old geographies. And that's only the beginning of the fun. By and by dad gets hold of one rope and the hired man the other, and run races down the lane—the steers "neck and neck," the old man performing the curse on the serpent. Then forming the curse on the serpent. Then there is the time in having, when dad there is the time in haying, when dad undertakes to show you how to mow over a bumblebee's nest. He cin't afraid of these bees, nor needn't be—just go right along—they never sting unless you fight 'em; and then, "Whish!" git out o' the way! and he departs for the house and hartshorn on a dead run, at the business end of a dozen yellow legged bumblebees. Oh no, there isn't any fun on a farm. - New York Commercial: "The Troy
